Significance of the West's Triumph in the Contest for the Republican Convention.

The Relative Strength Developed by Logan and Arthur—Opinions from the South and East.

PRESIDENTIAL POSSIBILITIES.

OPINIONS OF VARIOUS CONVENTION MEN.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 13.—[Special.] In the echoes of the meeting of the National Republican Committee here are dual prongs. Logan, who was unwilling to admit that the withdrawal of the Chairman or the place of meeting has significance as to the success of any Presidential candidate, acknowledges that one result will doubtless be to cause discussion as to the eligibility of the various candidates. "And," said one of the other Republican leaders to-day, "it is time that this discussion should begin. The present political situation is anomalous. Three politicians serve, not a principle in our history when the convention of a great party met to select the place for holding the convention when there was not a chance acknowledged to the public mind as to who the Presidential candidates are to be. It is important for the party that the great should begin to discuss their candidates, for it is always wise to turn to the inspiration of the convention to make the choice, or not the men with the Republican party at Chicago four years ago met at Cincinnati in 1876."

CHASE AND ARTHUR.

The action of the committee has pretty plainly developed the candidacy of Gen. Logan. Arthur's friends say, however, that it is not certain that it has defined the position. It is probably true that the President did not intend in any way to interfere with proper action by the Chairmanship of the committee or the location of the convention. But it is also true that those who are very near to him, personally and officially, were for several days earnestly at work to accomplish certain objects in the interests of Gen. Arthur that they failed to accomplish. Then, [illegible] there was [illegible] on this account. Arthur's friends, while maintaining that the action of the committee is not regarded as in the account of any fundamental importance, were disappointed that there was not some indication for their chief. It was, perhaps, not surprising to Arthur's friends that their mention of the committee who were the most earnest in the advocacy had failed even [illegible]. So far as can be, the attitude of the Commissioners toward Arthur was to observe [illegible] an air of respect and admiration. It is to be remembered, however, that the decision of the committee for the first part here [illegible] political relations. The President's friends expect even similar support from Ohio and Iowa. In Ohio, however, of the general character of the contest made by Logan the Administration ought not to be in any degree answerable to the men friendly to the Administration.

A CHASE MEETING.

Logan secured a large vote in the South, and in the unanimity and of the commitment of nearly by the present and recently deposed officials of South Carolina, and the Congressional [illegible] of the South, that practically [illegible] the Administration were there was not a chance acknowledged to the public mind as to who the Presidential candidates are to be. VIEWS OF ONE MAN AND SEVERAL CONFERENCES.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 13.—[Special.] The Philadelphia press and people take the vote of the National Committee with considerable equanimity, a few exceptions. They recognize the fact that preparations in the Chicago Convention will be more than ever in the interest of the Logan men, and admit that they were ready for it. Some of the Logan men are disposed to be somewhat jubilant over the result, claiming that it is a victory for their candidate, and that the Chicago Convention will be controlled by Logan men. Others, however, are disposed to be more conservative, and say that the result is not a victory for Logan, but simply a victory for the Chicago Convention. THE DIVORCED WIFE OF THE DEFAULTER CHRISBACY DIES A ROVING SHOELESS.

New York, Dec. 13.—[Special.]—The fact that Mrs. Christiancy, the divorced wife of Gen. Isaac Christiancy, of Michigan, came to a premature termination of her unhappy life on the night of Nov. 29 was known to but few of the residents of Mrs. Christiancy's boarding-house, No. 17 Lexington avenue, to several fast friends of the deceased, and to the members of both houses of the Legislature, but matters were thus shielded as far as possible from the public gaze. The death occurred in the room of her friends, only about a day after the latter had left the house of the lady in question. Dr. Draper was called to the residence that fatal Saturday morning, but on his arrival found that his patient was beyond human aid. The doctor who was summoned pronounced the cause of death to be heart disease, and gave a certificate to that effect. The remains were removed to the undertaking establishment of Mr. Frederick Loeb, No. 17 Lexington avenue, where they were prepared for burial. The funeral took place on Monday, Dec. 3, at Christ Church, Fifth avenue and Thirty-fifth street, and was largely attended by several well-known ladies and gentlemen of this city and Washington. The pall-bearers were Gen. Martin, Gen. Ingalls, Gen. Sharpe, Gen. Dix, Gen. Tracy, Gen. Wilcox, Gen. Barnard, Gen. Hancock, Gen. Sherman, and Colonel Fox. The interment was at Greenwood Cemetery, and was private. The body was placed in a rosewood casket, with silver handles and plate. The inscription was as follows: "Mary Christiancy, born Dec. 17, 1837; died Nov. 29, 1883."

FRANCE AND CHINA.

[Special Cable Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.]

PARIS, Dec. 10.—[Special Cable Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.]—The latest advices from Hue, the Capital of Annam, confirm the assassination of the rightful King Tu Duc, King of Annam, in June, and that he was murdered by court conspirators acting in the capacity of servants to the royal household. He was poisoned, the fruit having been placed in his food. It is understood that the prime minister Ahmed was of foreign manufacture, and was given power to French treachery. Hughieu was a younger brother to Tu Duc, who died shortly before news after signing the enforced treaty with the French, giving the latter the right of occupying Hué.

The death of Hughieu has caused a tremendous struggle in China, and has aroused the Annamese and Tonquinese to indignation.

The Mandarins of Annam have publicly declared to ignore the treaty forced by the French from Tu Duc conferring the French occupation of Annam. The Mandarins of Annam have proclaimed war against France.

Admiral Courbet, commanding the French squadron in China, has notified the French Government that it is imperatively necessary to immediately reinforce the Tonkin army in full.

Reinforcements strongly insisted by the French Palmerston and Clark-Kennedy have been received.

The Senate has voted urgency upon the Tonquin credits bill.

The Marquis Tseng says no satisfactory settlement is still possible.

[Special Cable Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.]—The Marquis Tseng has accepted an invitation to dine with M. Ferry this day. On the Marquis has refused to hold any personal relations with the French Prime Minister since the latter's use of the insulting telegram, stating that Li Hung Chang, the Chinese General, had disavowed Tseng's opposition to the French invasion of Tonquin, the present acceptance is the subject of Parisian comment.

A BLOW AT ENGLAND.

Count von Arnim has sent to Prince Bismarck a carefully drawn map of the entire Tonquin country, with commendation by himself.

It failed to manifest any general sympathy with the rioters. Several other towns are infected. Several cases have occurred in Madrid. It is said the Government is ready to recommend France for further and speedy action for Valencian affairs.

FOREIGN AND POLITICAL.

A MANCHESTER OPINION.

[Special Cable Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.]—The extraordinary interest and profound feeling with which Premier Gladstone's bill concerning the marriage of Jews and Christians was opposed by the Hungarian House of Lords is partially explained by a current number that has aroused the general indignation of England and of the entire press. Many had the other evening, at the aristocratic Duke of Abercorn's, but at points over a million Britons. To pay he was obliged to sell his entire property at about half its real value. Naturally, a delay of twenty-four hours elapsed before payment. The gentleman mentioned here proposed to accept Baron Hirsch from the club, but Premier Tisza, who is an intimate friend of Baron Hirsch, warned to oppose his expulsion. Finally by a vote of 41 to 39 he was continued a member. All the Conservatives and Clericals who had played [illegible] Baron Hirsch not vote either against [illegible] Tisza for his action in the matter. Since then the resignation of Baron Hirsch, Public feeling is deepest in world, so what is declared to be startling the indignation of the community to personal motives. The Hungarian papers take the matter to severely and say: "Unseemly people and in the Hungarian House of Lords suppress who have longer and misery can scarcely regret, and whose all regret is natural."

The Lower House of the Hungarian Diet has resolved to maintain the bill legalizing the marriages of Jews and Christians.

First Proceedings of the Wisconsin State Convention Sitting at Milwaukee.

The English Government Arraigned for Usurpation, Confiscation, and General Misrule in Ireland.

Daniel Brought Indeed—The Right of Revolution Affirmed, but a Peaceful Policy Counseled.

Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 17.—[Special.]—The second and closing day's proceedings of the State Convention of the Irish National League of Wisconsin began at the Academy of Music at 10 o'clock this morning.

The following gentlemen were appointed a committee to prepare and present a plan for a State organization: M. J. Higgins, Milwaukee; P. H. Harris, Fond du Lac; E. J. Carlton, Sheboygan; J. J. O'Connor, Dane; Hugh Campbell, Lafayette; Dr. Flynn, Milwaukee; the Rev. T. J. Lavin, Rock; and Simon Cullen, Sheboygan.

Under the legislation governing the National League each county out having a Municipal Council is entitled to a Vice-President in the State organization. So the Directors in the only county in the State having such council, a county organization.

The first real indication of any conflict of opinion presented itself when the convention was called to order again and the committee were called to report the Vice-Presidents selected. When Milwaukee County was reached a delegate from that county announced that J. P. Sullivan was the choice of the delegation. The Rev. Father Lavigne, a member of the delegation, objected, saying the statement concerning Mr. Sullivan's name had not been put and made no report for Oshkosh, and asked for further time. A member of the delegation stated that Father Lavigne intended to create trouble, delegation and opposition to the convention and by their act to overthrow the action of the Milwaukee delegation. Father Lavigne admitted that he opposed the presence of politicians delegates from his county, but said they had proper authorities. By a hearty resolution was the convention refused to grant Father Lavigne's request, and Mr. Sullivan was recognized as the Vice-President for Calumet County. Then the following expressed delegations were announced, which in one form or another will be heard of during the day:

THE RESOLUTIONS.

The full text of the resolutions adopted by the convention will be found in the Tribune's Milwaukee correspondence. The following are the principal ones:

Resolved, That we, the Irish National League of Wisconsin, in convention assembled, do hereby express our sympathy with the Irish people in their struggle for liberty and self-government, and we hereby pledge ourselves to do all in our power to assist them in their struggle.

Our bankers are getting their pay now on a large proportion of their loans, but the money market is not yet easy. Call loans in the New York market, however, have been a little easier than at any time for a month past, and the supply of commercial paper is increasing. Rates for the latter are unchanged at 5@6 per cent for the best names, with a fair demand. Sterling exchange is firm, with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.86@4.86 1/4 for sixty days and $4.87@4.87 1/4 for demand. Posted rates are $4.86 1/2@4.87 and $4.87 1/2@4.88. Railroad bonds are quiet but firm. State bonds are inactive and steady. Stocks are dull, irregular and narrow most of the time, with a moderate amount of trading in the active issues, but with a firmer tone at the close. The Boston markets were not active but were firm.
